Vision Prayer

Heavenly Father, by the power of Your Holy Spirit, we the faithful of Corpus Christi Parish, ask that You bless and sanctify us as we work together to implement our Vision. We ask that You guide us as we strive to love bravely, to serve radically and to meet all whom we encounter with humility and compassion. Help us to unite joyfully and lovingly as followers of your Son, Jesus, to take His message with us wherever we go. We know that by Your grace, we can make this Vision a reality. We ask this in the name of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Canada's Bishops Announce Indigenous Reconciliation Fund to Support Projects Across Canada

Canada's Catholic Bishops have agreed to establish a new registered charity to support and advance healing and reconciliation initiatives. The charity is expected to manage the Indigenous Reconciliation Fund, which will accept contributions from 73 dioceses across Canada in order to fulfill the $30 million financial commitment made by Canada's Bishops in September.

The fund will publish annual reports and will be subject to an audit by an independent accounting firm each year. Any administrative costs will be on top of the $30 million being raised and will not be deducted from this principal amount.

We recognize that there has been considerable disappointment with a previous Catholic fundraising campaign tied to the Indian Residential School Settlement Agreement. While the CCCB was not party to the agreement, we have recognized the shortcomings of this campaign and learned critically important lessons to ensure that the Indigenous Reconciliation Fund is fully funded and well managed with appropriate oversight. Additional information on the "best efforts" campaign led by the Catholic Entities Party to the Indian Residential School Settlement can be found here.

The establishment of this national framework builds on existing fundraising from local Catholic entities including the Archdioceses of Winnipeg and St. Boniface, the Bishops of Saskatchewan, and the Archdiocese of Vancouver. The CCCB will continue to provide regular public updates on this work, including on the appointment of Directors, as part of the ongoing journey towards healing and reconciliation.

February 11: World Day of Prayer for the Sick

Next week, on February 11, the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes, the faithful world wide are invited to recognize World Day of Prayer for the Sick. This year marks the 30th World Day of the Sick. Pope Francis released a message for this day that says in part:

Prayers for the Sick

The full text of Pope Francis' message for the World Day of Prayer for the Sick can be viewed by clicking here.

Dear brothers and sisters,

Thirty years ago, Saint John Paul II instituted the World Day of the Sick to encourage the people of God, Catholic health institutions and civil society to be increasingly attentive to the sick and to those who care for them.

We are grateful to the Lord for the progress made over the years in the particular Churches worldwide. Many advances have been made, yet there is still a long way to go in ensuring that all the sick, also those living in places and situations of great poverty and marginalization, receive the health care they need, as well as the pastoral care that can help them experience their sickness in union with the crucified and risen Christ.

Children and Youth

Little Church takes place during the Liturgy of the Word at Sunday Mass. This children's liturgy of God's word invites children to experience the elements of the liturgy through music, prayer, readings and interactive reflections adapted to their understanding. Parents are welcome to accompany their children or stay in Mass while children participate in Little Church.

*Little Church is Coming Soon!
To Corpus Christi St. John Windsor and St. Joseph Kentville.*

Please keep our young persons preparing for the Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Communion in your prayers. They are meeting with our director of Family Life and Youth, Jennifer Moore, on a weekly basis as they journey toward the Sacraments.

The Confirmation Class is participating in Coldest Night of the Year. This annual walk takes place in February across Canada and the US. The Coldest Night of the Year is a winterrific family-friendly walk to raise money for local charities serving people experiencing hurt, hunger, and homelessness. It's cold out there... but there's no place like home.

The best way to donate is to follow this link and donate online at the CNOY website. Your donation will go to the Corpus Christi Confirmation Team. Or you can drop a cheque in the collection plate with CNOY Corpus Christi Confirmation Team in the memo line or send an e-transfer to finance@corpuschristins.ca with CNOY Corpus Christi Confirmation Team in the comment box.

The Confirmation Team led our youth preparing for Confirmation in a Youth Session. Participants were able to share their thoughts, feelings, ideas and hopes for the Church.

This Synod provides the whole Church with an opportunity to evaluate the way we integrate young people into the Life of the Church.

“...the objective of the current Synod is to listen, as the entire People of God, to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the Church. We do so by listening together to the Word of God in Scripture and the living Tradition of the Church, and then by listening to one another, and especially to those at the margins, discerning the signs of the times.”

Items of Note

A Note of Appreciation from your St Francis of Assisi Vincentians

The Society of St Vincent de Paul received tremendous support once again from the parish and greater community to realize success in their Annual 2021 Christmas Campaign. To the many parishioners and friends who gave money to purchase store gift cards, as well as those who donated baking supplies, gift bags and stocking stuffers, or who knitted hats and mittens to add to our deliveries, we extend a heartfelt wish that your generosity will be returned to you in a multitude of blessings! A total number of 41 gift cards were given out to 23 families this year in the Wolfville and Canning areas. THANK YOU ONE AND ALL!

Rich Kids Growing Up Without Money – or Understanding

by Fr. Ron Rolheiser o.m.i.

Gloria Steinem once confessed that, while never having been overweight, she has always been concerned about her weight because the genes she inherited from her parents predisposed her in that direction. So, she says, I think of myself as a fat woman who is slim at the moment. Her comment helped me to understand something I misunderstood years before in a classroom.

Early on in my seminary studies, taking a course on the sociology of poverty, I was struggling to accept our professor's explanation as to why poverty isn't always the consequence of personal failure, but is often the product of unchosen circumstances, accidents, and misfortune. Many of us in the class weren't buying it, and this was our logic. Most of us had come from very humble economic backgrounds and believed that we had pulled ourselves up by our own bootstraps. Why couldn't everyone else do the same?

So we protested: we grew up poor. We didn't have any money. We didn't get free school lunches. We had to work to pay for our clothes and books. Our parents never took any handouts. Nobody helped them – they took care of themselves. So have we, their kids. We resent those who are getting things for nothing. Nothing came to us free! We've earned what we have.

Our professor answered by telling us that this is precisely why we needed a course on the sociology of poverty. He wasn't buying the notion that we had grown up poor and had earned things by our own hard work. Then, this surprising phrase: "None of you were poor as kids; you were rich kids who grew up without money; and where you are today isn't just the result of your own hard work, it's also the result of a lot of good fortune."

It took me years (and Gloria Steinem's comment) to understand he was right. I was a rich kid who grew up in a family without money. Moreover, so much of what I naively believed that I'd earned by my own hard work was in fact very much the product of good fortune.

I doubt our society understands that. A number of popular clichés have us believe that one's background should never be an excuse for not being a success in this world, that success is open equally to everyone. We've all inhaled the clichés. Any poor kid can grow up to be President of this country! Any poor kid can go to Harvard! Anybody industrious can make a success of his or her life! There's no excuse for any healthy person not having a job!

Is this true? Partially, yes; kids from poor economic backgrounds have become president, thousands of poor kids have found entrance into the best universities, countless kids who grew up poor have been highly successful in life, and people who are motivated and not lazy generally do make a success of their lives. However, that's far from the whole story.

What really makes for the separation of rich and poor in our world? Is everyone really on equal footing? Is it really virtue that makes for success and lack of it that makes for failure?

In a best-selling book, Elderhood, Louise Aronson, makes this comment about her mother and Queen Elizabeth, both who aged wonderfully and gracefully: "They both were born into privilege: white, citizens of developed countries, wealthy and educated. Both were gifted with great genetic DNA, and both had the good fortune of not ever having been assaulted, abused, felled by cancer, or in a debilitating car accident. ... These advantages are not a matter of character. Indeed, willpower and capacity for wise decisions are often by-products of fortunate lives." (Emphasis, mine)

Success isn't predicated only on personal character, hard work, and dedication. Neither is failure necessarily the result of weakness, laziness, and lack of effort. We aren't all born equal, set equally into the same starting blocks, have equally gifted or abusive childhoods, are allotted equally the same opportunities for education and growth, and then are parceled out equally the same measure of accidents, illness, and tragedy in life. However, it's because we naively believe that fortune is allotted equally to all that we glibly (and cruelly) divide

Synod News

Sometimes the word “synod” refers to an assembly of the Synod of Bishops – which happens once every three years. Recent synods have examined themes such as new evangelization, the family, young people and the Amazon. The next Synod of Bishops, in 2023, will focus on the topic of synodality itself.

The word “synod” also refers to “journeying together” – being a community that is united in purpose and mission, moving together in the same direction in this earthly pilgrimage.

An Invitation to Participate in the Synod

There's a Place for You!

Our parish of Corpus Christi began to participate in this process in November ... as representatives (Community Life Teams - CLTs) from our 9 church communities took part in 3 regional meetings. After these meetings, each CLT was tasked with bringing the synodal process to each church community. Most of our CLTs were looking at hosting in-person meetings in January .... But, as we all know, the Omicron Variant appeared on the scene, and in-person Synod meetings were postponed.

So, in preparation for this 2023 Synod of Bishops, Pope Francis has asked all of the bishops to consult and pray with their own dioceses to help determine how synodality is being lived out in their midst and how we need to grow in our experience of journeying together.

So, here we are!

If you missed the Zoom meeting on February 4—there will be additional opportunities to participate in the next few weeks. We'll be sending out more info via Flocknote (are you on the mailing list?) and via the bulletin, so watch your inbox.

The purpose of this Synod is not intended to produce more documents but to inspire people to dream about the Church we are called to be, to make people's hopes flourish, to stimulate trust, to bind up wounds, to weave new and deeper relationships, to learn from one another, and to restore strength to our hands for our common mission.

people into winners and losers, judge harshly those we deem losers, blame them for their misfortunes, and congratulate ourselves on what we have achieved, as if all the credit for our success can be attributed to our own virtue. Conversely, we see those who are poor as having only themselves to blame. Why can't they pull themselves up by their bootstraps? We did!

But ... some of us have genes that predispose us to become fat, some of us are rich kids who grow up without money, and willpower and capacity for wise decisions are often the products of a fortunate life rather than a matter of character. Recognizing that can make us less cruel in our judgments and far less smug in our own successes. www.ronrolheiser.com

Prayer for the Synod

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way

we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.
