Giving to Corpus Christi Parish

Corpus Christi is blessed to have so many gifted volunteers, but there are still many areas of your Parish that require financial support, services that are unable to be completed volunteers. Your Parish Finance & Administrative Council strives to control and minimize expenses without compromising services, but without your donations this task is There have been many challenges over the last few years and expenses have been kept to minimum, but if we are to be able to offer expanded programs, to reach those requiring our help, we need your financial support. Considering giving?

There are many ways to donate to Corpus Christi Parish:

- 1- Weekly Offertory Envelopes (envelopes are available at your church communities)
- 2- Cash donations (deposited in collection baskets at Mass)
- 3- E-Transfers (to include your name and church) directed to Corpus Christi (email: finance@corpuschristins.ca)
- 4- PAR (pre-authorized remittances) from your bank account to Corpus Christi's (application forms available upon request)
- 5- Through the mail (directed to Corpus Christi Parish Kentville Parish Office)

Corpus Christi Parish thanks you for your financial support – How else could we fulfill our mission?

To Whom Can We Go?

By Fr. Ron Rolheiser o.m.i.

"To whom else shall we go? You have the message of eternal life." Peter says these words to Jesus. But they are spoken in a very conflicted context: Jesus had just said something that upset and offended his audience and the gospels tell us that everyone walked away grumbling that what Jesus was teaching was "intolerable". Jesus then turns to his apostles and asks them: "Do you want to walk away too?" Peter answers: "To whom else can we go?" But that's more a statement of stoic resignation than an actual question.

His words function at two levels. On the surface, they express an unwanted humility and helplessness that sometimes beset us all: "I have no alternative! I'm so invested in this relationship that now I have no other options. I'm stuck with this!" That's a humble place to stand and anyone who has ever given himself or herself over in an authentic commitment will eventually stand on that place, knowing that he or she no longer has another practical choice.

But those words also express a much deeper quandary, namely, where can I find meaning if I cannot find it in faith in God? All of us have at some point asked ourselves that question. If I didn't believe in God and had no faith or religion, what would give meaning to my life?

Where can we go if we no longer have an explicit faith in God? A lot of places, it seems. I think immediately of so many attractive stoics who have wrestled with this question and found solace in various forms of what Albert Camus would call "metaphysical rebellion" or in the kind of Epicureanism that Nikos Kazantzakis advocates in Zorba, the Greek. There's a stoicism which offers its own kind of salvation by drawing life and meaning simply from fighting chaos and disease for no other reason than that that these cause suffering and are an affront to life, just as there is an Epicureanism that meaningfully grounds life in elemental pleasure. There are, it would seem, different kinds of saints.

There are also different kinds of immortality. For some, meaning outside of an explicit faith, is found in leaving a lasting legacy on this earth, having children, achieving something monumental, or becoming a household name. We're all familiar with the axiom: Plant a tree; write a book; have a child!

Poets, writers, artists, and artisans often have their own place to find meaning outside of explicit faith. For them, creativity and beauty can be ends in themselves. Art for art's sake. Creativity itself can seem enough.

And there are still others for whom deep meaning is found simply in being good for its own sake and in being honest for its own sake. There's also virtue for virtue's sake and virtue is indeed its own reward. Simply living an honest and generous life can provide sufficient meaning with which to walk through life.

So, it appears that there are places to go outside of explicit faith where one can find deep meaning. But is this really so? Don't we believe that true meaning can only be found in God? What about St. Augustine's classic line? You have made us for yourself, Lord, and our hearts are restless until the rest in you. Can anything other than faith and God really quiet the restless fires within us?

Yes, there are things that can do that, but all of them — fighting chaos, curing diseases, having children, living for others, building things, inventing things, achieving goals, or simply living honest and generous lives — leave us, in an inchoate way, radiating the transcendental properties of God and working alongside God to bring life and order to the world. How so?

Christian theology tells us that God is One, True, Good, and Beautiful. And so, when an artist gives herself over to creating beauty, when a couple has a child, when scientists work to find cures for various diseases, when artisans make an artifact, when builders build, when teachers teach, when parents parent, when athletes play a game, when manual laborers labor, when administrators administrate, when people just for the sake integrity itself live in honesty and generosity, and, yes, even when hedonists drink deeply of earthily pleasure, they are, all of them, whether they have explicit faith or not, acting in some faith because they are putting their trust in either the Oneness, Truth, Goodness, or Beauty of God.

Lord, to whom else can we go? You have the message of eternal life. Well, it seems that there are places to go and many go there. But these aren't necessarily, as is sometimes suggested by misguided spiritual literature, empty places that are wrong and self-destructive. There are, of course, such places, spiritual dead-ends; but, more generally, as we can see simply by looking at the amount of positive energy, love, creativity, generosity, and honesty that still fill our world, those places where people are seeking God outside of explicit faith still has them meeting God.

Little Church

We need to build a team of parent volunteers to support Little Church at Saint John's, Windsor and Saint Joseph's (Kentville). A parent volunteer just needs to tag along to Little Church once in a while - if there are not two leaders present at Mass. If we have two adults present, we can provide Little Church every week for our littlest disciples! All volunteers will be required to go through the Responsible Ministry Protocol. If you are interested please contact Jennifer: 902 799 1250, familylifeandyouth@corpuschristins.ca

Are you interested in becoming an altar server at St. John's? We are looking for more altar servers and training will be held this fall. If you or your child are interested, please contact Patty Burgess or Jerone Cleveland.

Back to School Support

As you probably know, there are already a number of initiatives taking place in the church communities of Corpus Christi Parish and in our communities, in general, by groups and individuals reaching out to support families trying to supply their children with "back to school supplies".

If you would like to help financially this effort in your local church, please e-transfer the parish or if by cheque, make the cheque out to Corpus Christi Parish (earmark it Back to School Supplies) or indicate on the envelope, if submitting cash. As well, please indicate your local church community. Any excess money will remain in the local community ... to help people who may need assistance, in one form or another.

Thanks - Fr. John MacPherson

First-of-the-Season Takeout Corn Chowder/Hamburger Soup luncheon on Wednesday, September 21st from 11:30 to 12:30 at Port Williams United Baptist Church. Cost is $10 for your chosen soup, bread and butter and either Cheesecake or Apple Crisp. Please call 902-542-3681 or 902-542-7141 by Monday September 19th to order. We will call you on September 19th with a pick up time.

A "Taste of India" Social Event

The Knights of Columbus (Kentville) are organizing a social event after 10:15am Mass on Sunday September 25th in the Multi-Purpose Room of St. Joseph's Church. Members of the Indian community of our church have worked with Chrismaria Family Restaurant New Minas to provide us with Indian cuisine. This is a good way for us to get to know members of our church community on a social bas and try some delicious food. It will be served buffet style. All is free of charge.

Corpus Christi Catholic Books & Gifts: Illustrated books titled "Our Father and Hail Mary" introduce children to these Scripture-based prayers that are foundational to our Catholic faith and devotions. These prayers bring comfort and hope throughout our lives, and unite us with the Church all over the world. ($2.95) Available at St. Monica's church hall after Sunday Mass or call Mary Crooks (902-825-6495) to arrange a time, or for special requests.

Assembly of the People of God - Evangelization!

On Saturday, September 24th, Ryan O'Hara will be speaking in Halifax on Evangelization – ie. what it is, what it means for you & me etc.

In 3 locations in our parish - Digby, Middleton & Kentville – you are invited to attend a live-streaming of Ryan O'Hara's presentation.

These will begin at 9am and conclude by 11:15am.

Welcome Corpus Christi parishioners!

Becoming Who We Really Are

by Fr. Richard Rohr o.f.m.

God takes human life seriously. To come into this world we will discover ourselves as beloved son, daughter, brother, sister, mother and father. This is not just a time-consuming preliminary; it is the entire process. The end is summed up in the beginning.

Baptism, our initiation into the new family of God, is everything all at once, symbolized and celebrated. It takes the rest of our life to understand it, to suffer it and live it. The reality precedes the word and gives authority to the word. The reality must be lived with first and only then spoken about. Christian life, then, is a matter of becoming who we already are.

from Sojourners, "My People, I Am Your Security"
