Spiritual Growth in 2024

Corpus Christi Parish recommends that you begin the New Year, 2024, with a plan for your spiritual growth. Below are two wonderful opportunities to help you grow daily in your relationship with Jesus Christ. You can use the Ascension web site on your computer or get the podcast on an app.

The Bible in a Year with Fr. Mike Schmitz is an amazing journey through the Bible. Listen to Fr. Mike as he reads the Bible to you daily. Enjoy your daily homily. Learn exciting new facts about our faith. (Did you know that Judaism and Christianity are the only religions in the world that say men and women are equal?) Twenty to twenty-five minutes daily with this podcast will teach you so much and enliven your faith. Begin the New Year with the Bible in a Year and grow daily in your faith! Below is the link for the web site. You can also use an app for the podcast such as Apple podcasts.

<https://media.ascensionpress.com/category/ascension-podcasts/bibleinayear/>

The Catechism in a Year with Fr. Mike Schmitz will read the entire Catechism in a year. You will learn the essentials of the Catholic faith and see how our faith is rooted in Sacred Scripture. Understand what it means to live your Catholic faith. Transform your relationship with the church. Here is the link for the Catechism in a Year. <https://ascensionpress.com/pages/catechisminayear>

With the beginning of a new year, start a new habit of daily spiritual growth with the Bible in a Year or the Catechism in a Year. Both these podcasts start on Jan. 1, 2024. You can start either of them at any time in the year as back episodes are available as is a daily reading plan.

Our Most Common Sin

by Fr. Ron Rolheiser o.m.i.

Fr. Daniel Berrigan, SJ, in his criteria for prophecy, submits (and rightly) that a prophet is someone who takes a vow of love, not of alienation. Prophecy is characterized by love aching for reconnection, not anger pushing for separation.

But love isn't generally what characterizes most so-called prophetic anger in our world today, especially as it pertains to God, religion, and defence of truth. French 17th-century philosopher and mathematician Blaise Pascal captured this well when he wrote: "Men never do evil so completely and cheerfully as when they do it from religious conviction." He's wrong on one thing; mostly we aren't doing it cheerfully but angrily. One only has to read the letters to the editor in our newspapers, listen to most talk-radio stations, or listen to any debate on politics, religion, or morality to see raw hatred and anger justifying themselves on moral and divine grounds.

There is such a thing as healthy prophetic anger, a fiery response when the poor of God, the word of God, or the truth of God are being slandered, abused, or neglected. There are important causes and boundaries to be defended. But prophetic anger is an anger that emanates out of love and empathy and always, regardless of the hatred it meets, still exhibits love and empathy, like a loving mother in the face of a belligerent child. Jesus on occasion exhibits this kind of anger, but his anger is antithetical to most of what masquerades as prophetic anger today, where love and empathy are so noticeably absent.

Someone once said that we spend the first half of life struggling with the Sixth Commandment, and then spend the second half of life struggling with the Fifth Commandment: Thou shalt not kill! We see this illustrated in the famous parable of the Prodigal Son, his Older Brother, and his Prodigal Father. The younger son is effectively out of his father's house through wrestling with the seductive energies of youth.

The older brother is just as effectively outside his father's house, not through sin, but through wrestling with anger.
